

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. I.

SPOUT SPRING, KY., APRIL 11, 1896.

NO. 12

BROOMSAGE KY.

Mr. Editor, as you have enlarged your paper, I thought perhaps you might allow me a space in your columns. I am not at all gifted with a writer's pen, but with the above excuses I will proceed: A word to the young men and boys, of our nation. Did you ever think that the future prosperity of our nation rests upon you? Did you ever think what kind of man you wanted to make? Do you want to make a man that has a good credit, and one that men will speak praise of? If so you must be truthful, sober, industrious, obedient and respectful to your parents. Young men always speak the truth; make your words gold as a national bank, and then the people will not be afraid to credit you. A good credit is worth a great deal if never used. Be sober; don't visit saloons and drug shops, that takes away the good credit you have already gained. Drink has robed many a poor helpless child of its bread, and has put out many a kitchen fire. Be industrious; the industrious are always prosperous and happy; the indolent poor, miserable and unhappy. Be obedient to your parents; nothing looks nicer in a young man than to be respectful and obedient to his parents. Set your mark in the world and make every effort possible to reach it; make a man that will be an honor to your family and a blossom to your country. You can make such if you try. Good young men are in demand.

Mr. Ed., time and space has run out, will write again if this escapes the waste basket.

Attention.

We have a supply of flour made by R. C. Mansfield, Cat Creek, which is equal to the best flour on the market. Buy a sack and be convinced.

PERSONALS.

R. King, of Log Lick, was in town yesterday.

Morvin Eubank, of Chilton, was observed on our streets Tuesday.

Miss Belle McKinney has gone to Winchester, where she has a position in a millinery store.

Lennie Crow, formerly of this place but now of Locklane, was visiting friends in town Saturday and Sunday.

Russell Christopher was visiting a friend in the country last Sunday. A friend! It must be quite a dear friend by him making such frequent calls over that way.

R. H. Gravett and family, consisting of wife, one son 12 years old and one daughter 9 years old, came in from Coolidge, Kan., last Friday. Mr. Gravett left this country 16 years ago, going from here to Ill. where he lived until about six years ago when he left there for Kansas, where he remained until he started for Ky. He will make his future home in Estill county.

We heartily welcome Mr. Gravett to our midst.

Y0122AD
Rev. Shelly Todd formerly of this place is very low with fever. His recovery is very doubtful.

SPOUT SPRING, Ky.

OUTRAGE AT*Berea.

BEREA, KY., April 6,-- Mrs. Nancy Kelly was dragged from her horse and outraged by a negro from Mt. Sterling by the name of Raymond Brown, while returning home from Berea. A posse of citizens are in pursuit, and great excitement prevails.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

If you fail to get your papers regularly you will confer a favor by notifying us of the fact at once.

Benjaman Harrison, Ex-President, and Mrs Dimmick were married in New York last Monday. None of Gen. Harrison's children were present.

J. H. Hicks while digging a cistern the other day at Dawson, Ky., discovered an ink well. He has supplied hundreds of people in that section of the county with ink since its discovery. The ink is said to be equal to the best manufactured ink. The supply is inexhaustable from all appearances. It is to be analyzed and put upon the market.

A man who believes in the old saying "see a pin and pick it up and all day you'll have good luck," saw a pin in front of the post-office one morning. Bending down his hat tumbled off and rolled into the ditch; his eyeglasses fell and broke on the pavement; his suspenders gave way behind. He burst the button-hole on the back of his shirt collar, and all but lost his new false teeth. He got the pin.

Georgetown Sentinel.

A young farmer of Logan county, being unable to decide which of two sisters he liked best, compromised the matter by marrying their widowed mother of thirty-six summers.

The current price of oats in bundles in this community, is $1.50 per hun. or $2.00 delivered. John Tuttle has sold a good many at the above price.
